Dear Admiral,

I know you are in search of men for Central Intelligence.

STAT Also I know [ ] who served in Marine Corps in first world war and with WPB in second world war, has filed papers with Central Intelligence. Without knowing a great deal about your operations, it would seem that by background and training he could be of value.

TAT [ ] speaks most highly of him as a public servant. I know him only as a friend, but can speak of him most highly as a man.

Best wishes and I want to see you again soon.

Yours,

/s/ Walter
